NOTICE WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

SWEDISH BOOKS

Hejsan!

The dictionaries we use are;

Bokforlaget Prisma Stockholm.

S-E is ISBN 91-518-1535-4
E-S is ISBN 91-518-1259-2
Both are "Satt hos Gotab Stockholm Trycket och bunden i Finland hos Otava, Keuru 1988".
We had out teacher order them from a bookstore in Sweden. When we were there, we did not see the two separate volumes, only one larger combined book. I just noticed a tag in the inside back cover. Associated Technical Services, Inc.

That might be a place to try.

Of Swedish Ways, by Lilly Lorenzen. Barnes and Nobel Books
ISBN 0-06-464021-3
We bought it at the Banana Republic in a local mall store for $6.95 + tax (of course).
Teach Yourself Swedish by R.J. McClean. Teach Yourself Books, Hodder & Stoughton ISBN 0-340-26510-8. Not too bad a book. I hope that I was able to be of some help to you. Maybe the N.J. place has a catalog. I have not dealt with them. It sure is nice to have your OWN books, it gives one a nice secure feeling. If you have children, maybe they could be enticed into learning a second language. Don't let me get on my soap-box about some things. We do not have children but we do have some opinions. Just look at some of the spelling on some of the posts!! I'm not so hot but I can spot typos vs not knowing. Art, shut up. Again, glad to be of help. Keep my address and if you need more info, I'll see what I can find out for you.

I think the dictionaries may have been ordered thru N.J. I'm just not sure. I think we paid about $30 each. It was steep

Here is a poem I found recently at the end of a history book of Coal Mountain Church. I thought it was appropriate enough to post and I hope you will agree it is so true!

The End

"This is the end of our history book;
We hope you've enjoyed as you took a look.
We've worked mighty hard and the hours were many,
To get it all together and mistakes may be plenty.

We've written and called, we begged and pleaded,
Even pestered a few to get information needed.
We appreciate your patience you've been very kind,
To get us through while still of sound mind.

Auntie said Grandpa was born in eighteen eighty-eight;
Cousin Jane said that couldn't be right.
The historian of the town said he remembered it this way.
And the newspaper gives another account of the day.

So history is told and recorded and repeated;
There is just no way that something will be deleted.
We've done our best to give the best account,
Of everything thats happened with nothing left out.

We hope our toil has not been in vain,
And that nothing recorded will cause you any pain.
Please pardon or errors as you glance through;
Because we'll do the same when you finish Volume Two."

This was originally written by Weston Womens Club and used by permission when the church ladies' auxillary wrote their 100-Year history of their church. It is right on the money, don't you think?

DON'T QUIT (unknown origin)
When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit--
Rest if you must, but don't you quit. >>>
Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As every one of us sometimes learn,
And many a fellow turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out.
Don't give up though the pace seems slow--
You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man;
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup; >>>
And he learned too late when the night came down
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out--
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit,--
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

Re: Fred E. Forsgren Estate

Dear Mrs. Forsgren:

This is to advise that I am about to leave for a short vacation. I'll be back about the second week in September. So far as I know there is nothing that will require attention in the meantime, and when I return I will be glad to go over the matters of the estate with you again, as I think we will be able then to plan for the final closing of the estate and the transfer of the assets.

The court has entered an order determining the estate free from the payment of any inheritance tax, so that, that matter is disposed of. I have not yet heard from the Director of Internal Revenue as to whether they wish to make any checkup of our return for Federal Estate Tax purposes, but I hope to hear from them in the near future.

I trust that you and your daughter enjoyed a very fine vacation on your trip to the west coast, and that you are now enjoying this warm summer weather at your home.

Very sincerely,

Dear Carol,

Your letter of Oct 29 arrived during my 27-year old daughter's bone marrow transplant and I had no time to answer it. She did not make it thru Nov. Leukemia is an insidious disease.

When I began my Christmas cards, I found I had one copy of the painting left from my 1990 cards and thought of you requested for a color photo.

Happy to oblige. Please do not send me a Christmas card as my exchange list is long enough.

Perhaps I will answer your ~~later~~ letter in a couple months when I feel up to genealogy again.

Sincerely,
Pam Deer

Dear Carol,

Your letter of Oct 29 arrived during my 27-year old daughter's bone marrow transplant and I had no time to answer it. She did not make it thru Nov. Leukemia is an insidious disease.

When I began my Christmas cards, I found I had one copy of the painting left from my 1990 cards and thought of you requested for a color photo.

Happy to oblige. Please do not send me a Christmas card as my exchange list is long enough.

Perhaps I will answer your ~~letter~~ letter in a couple months when I feel up to genealogy again.

Sincerely,
Pam Deen

The bronze plates outside only list those names of people who contributed $100 for that purpose. It was a fund-raising program. BTW, the original bronze plates were so defaced by tourists that they are being replaced. I don't know what is being done, but those plates and a new set are supposed to be "vandal-proof." The computer list you speak of, if it's the same one I saw, was another fund raising program run in conjuntion with Eastman Kodak Co. while the Statue of Liberty was being overhauled. For $15, you could send in a photo of anyone, although most people sent in pictures of ancestor-immigrants. You can enter either their name, a code number or the donor's name and the picture, which has been entered into the computer, comes up on a TV screen. It's quite a moving experience to see you ancestors in that way, even though you may have a copy of the photo at home. The same computer setup is in both the Statue of Liberty and at Ellis Island. Also BTW, if you go to Ellis Island, which I highly recommend, as soon as you get off the boat go into the building and on the left get tickets to the motion picture show. The tickets are free but they go quickly. By the time we got our tickets at about 10:45, the next available show was after 1 pm. The movie is excellent. Plan on spending at least 4-5 hours for the tour.

One last comment: one thing I learned and was surprised about was that only the immigrants that came over steerage went through Ellis Island. Those who could afford better accommodations went through immigration much the same way we do now, either with the officials going on board the ship or dealing with the arrivals in an office-type setting. But not at Ellis Island. Even those who went through Ellis Island only spent a day there, being ferried over from their boat and being taken the same day, after processing, to the mainland.

For a comment about bronze plates, this turned out to be a long reply!!!

Kära Harry,

Tack så mycket för dit brev berättande av min farfar. Jag önskar att jag kunde har känt honom och min farmor.

Det var mycket tråkigt att höra om din familj. Det är aldrig lätt att förlora någon person.

Jag kunde inte skriva före nu eftersom jag var så upptagen med Shelley's bröllopsdag och Lenard var på sjukhuset med hjärtattack. Han är ganske bra nu, men vi måste träna oss mer och jag måste byta hur jag lager mat.

Jag skickar fotos av Shelley's bröllopsdag som var 22 April 1995. Shelly och Larry var gifta i den samma kyrkan där Lenard och jag var gifta och den samma prästen utförade deras ceremoniös och för oss också.

Shelly hade på sig mina bröllopskläder som menade mycket till mig. Som du kan se, jag var tunnare förr.

Kunde du identifiera någon i de bildarna som jag skickade förr? Om du skulle ville ha en kopia av någon, tala om för mig.

Kan du tala om för mig vilken församling min far var född i? Var det Sunnanå?

Om jag hittar mer information, jag vill tala om för dig.

Alla Mina Bästa

Gentlemen:

Re: Mecklenberg Research
John Mueller (b. 18 May 1827) &
Elizabeth Gehring (b. 30 Nov 1842)

Just received my latest issue of the Digest today, and wanted to thank you for doing the article on Mecklenburg. I have been unable to find my family over there so far, and wondered if you could help me get a start.

1. Cannot find any listings on the I.G.I.

2. Have checked with Cook Co., IL where they lived over 35 years and with National Archives in Chicago; and they have no record of John Mueller's naturalization.

3. Cannot find them on either direct or indirect passenger list. The 1900 census says they had been here 35 years and that they came from Mecklenburg.

4. Death certificates and cemetery records do not give any specific place in Germany, although the church death record for John Mueller lists Mecklenburg-Schwerin as birthplace.

5. Elizabeth Gehring Mueller sent for her brother and his family, who came over in 1869. The direct passenger list for William Gehring, wife Dorthea, daughter Minnie, and son Frid shows Zapel. In checking the microfilm for Zapel for their births, marriages, or births of their children, I could not find any of them.

6. I've contacted the descendants of William Gehring, and have not gotten much help so far. Am now trying to locate a copy of William's naturalization and death certificate.

Family tradition says: John Mueller was a carpenter, who went from town to town to seek work and kept a traveling book which was signed by all the people he worked for.

Elizabeth Gehring was the daughter of William Gehring, a Lutheran minister, and Dora Dinkle_____? (see att.). In about 1848, her parents died and she and her younger brother had to go to a Lutheran orphanage, which was the only orphanage in that part of Germany.

When Elizabeth was older, she stayed at the orphanage to help out with the younger children. While shopping in town one day, she met John Mueller. They married about 1862 and emigrated to the United States about 1864 with their 3 or 4 month old baby, Louise.

They took some type of sailboat, which Elizabeth said took twice as long as a bigger ship would have. Baby Louise died en route. They moved to Chicago, where they remained the rest of their lives.

John and Elizabeth sent money back to the orphanage when they could and saved for five years to bring Elizabeth's brother Wilhelm, wife Dora, daughter Minnie, and son Frid over. They are on the direct passenger list for 12 May 1869.

Do you know the location of an orphanage in Mecklenburg and where I might search for records? And could you tell me what types of records I might find for them in that time period? The birthdate, area, and occupation (cabinet maker /carpenter) are all I have to go on for John Mueller.

Any information or suggestions you could give me would be deeply appreciated. It took me months to track down their death dates and find the location of the church records, and I've been spinning my wheels ever since.

Please find a self-addressed stamped envelope for your convenience.

Sincerely,

Carol Springer

view of the fact that said John E. Forsgren did not leave any moneys on hand or in the bank with which to pay his obligations, but left as his only belongings, certain shares of stock in the Graham-Paige Corporation, Hurd Lock & Manufacturing Company and Masco Screw Products Company, it was concluded that it would be to the advantage of the decedent's estate herein to advance the funds necessary to pay off the debts and obligations of said John E. Forsgren and the costs and expenses of the administration of his estate to the Lincoln National Bank and Trust Company of Fort Wayne, Administrator, de bonis non of the estate of said John E. Forsgren and to receive on final distribution the shares of stock held in said estate in kind, and accordingly a certain amount, as shown in the accounting herein was advanced to the Administrator of said John E. Forsgren as widow of the decedent herein, as hereinafter referred to, and by means of such funds, said Administrator of the John E. 	TOTAL ADVANCED FOR BENEFIT OF ESTATE BY FLORENCE E. PORGRAM AND BALANCE WIDOW'S ALLOWANCE	$ 8,791.15

11. Affiant further shows to the Court that the value of the assets remaining on hand, as inventoried, are inadequate to pay to this affiant the balance owing on her statutory allowance and to repay to her the amounts above set forth of advancements made by her for the purpose of defraying the expenses of last illness, funeral expenses, taxes and debts of the decedent and amounts advanced in connection with the administration of the decedent's estate; that decedent's automobile is necessary for the transportation of affiant and her minor daughter from their home, which is located outside the City of Fort Wayne and is a considerable distance from the downtown portion of the city as well as the school attended by said daughter; that the appraisal thereof was of the value as at the death of the decedent and would be considerably less in view of the year that has elapsed since then and that on the present market, affiant believes that the shares of stock and automobile remaining in the estate could not be liquidated for more than the value shown in the inventory herein and would probably have to be liquidated for less than that amount and would thus leave the decedent's estate insolvent. That after the payment of the obligations and advancements by this affiant as shown above, there was only one obligation outstanding against the decedent's estate, that being a promissory note in the principal sum of $3,000.00 executed by the decedent and this affiant, as his wife, for money borrowed from Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hintz of Chicago, Illinois, upon which the full principal sum was due and unpaid at the time of the decedent's death; that since decedent's death, this affiant has paid the sum of $500.00 upon said note and there now remains unpaid, the sum of $2,500.00, which this affiant is unable to pay at this time because of lack of ready funds, but the payees in said note, in order to enable this affiant to close this estate without the necessity of liquidating the remaining assets in the estate at a possible sacrifice of value thereof, agree to release the decedent's estate from any further liability on said promissory note and to look solely to this affiant for the payment thereof, in consideration of the agreement by this affiant to assume and pay the entire balance of said promissory note and affiant attaches hereto the agreement of the parties to that effect.

12. Affiant further says that she believes that it will be to the best interest of the decedent's estate and of the heirs of said decedent to transfer and deliver to herself as an individual, all of the assets remaining on hand in this estate, as above set forth, in full payment and satisfaction of her claims for statutory allowance and amounts advanced, as above set forth in lieu of selling and liquidating said assets remaining on hand, and thereby saving the additional cost of disposing of said assets and additional costs of administration and preventing any shrinkage in value, and in consideration of such transfer, this affiant will release all of her said claims against the decedent's estate so that the same may be closed on a basis other than insolvency.

13. Affiant further says that she is not making any claim for her services as administratrix herein, but that she has employed the firm of Parry and Barns, as attorneys, for said estate. Said attorneys have handled all matters of administration procedure including the appointment of the administratrix and the opening of the estate, services in ascertaining and inventorying the assets belonging to the decedent, proceedings to determine tax liability under the Federal Income Tax law, the Federal Estate Tax law, the Gross Income Tax law and the Indiana Inheritance Tax law and have handled all matters requiring legal attention in said estate, and for their services in the administration of this estate, said attorneys have charged, and this affiant, as administratrix, has paid to them a sum of $1,800.00 in full payment of their fee. The gross estate as determined for Federal Estate Tax purposes amounted to $87,795.64, of which the value of the assets administered upon in the estate was $10,453.06.

WHEREFORE, this affiant prays the Court for an order as follows:

(a) Approving this final report, and the accounting of this affiant therein, in all things;

(b) Approving and allowing the amount of fees paid by affiant to the attorneys for said estate as herein reported;

(c) Authorizing and ordering this affiant to transfer and deliver to herself, the entire balance of assets on hand as herein reported, to-wit: The Cadillac automobile and the shares of corporate stock above described, in full payment and discharge of affiant's said claim for statutory allowance and amounts advanced for the benefit of the decedent's estate as above recorded, leaving no assets for the distribution to the heirs at law of said decedent;

(d) And that upon making report of such transfer, that this estate be declared to have been fully administered upon and terminated, and that this affiant be released from any further duties or obligations in said estate and that she and the surety on her official bond be released from any further liability upon said official bond; and

(e) For such other and further order as the Court may deem appropriate in the premises.

INFORMATION FOR TAXPAYERS

Returns are required to be filed for any quarterly period in which the taxpayer's liability exceeds $25.00. Payments for any quarter shall include the tax for any previous quarter for which a return has not been filed. The quarterly periods end on March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31, respectively. The final date of payment for each quarter is the last day of the month following the end of the quarter. No separate return is to be filed for the last quarter of the year, since every taxpayer is required to file an annual return covering his income for the entire year, taking credit for payments made in any quarter during the year.

In preparing this return insert the amount of your entire gross income, taxable and nontaxable, received during the year, in the proper lines and in the columns applicable to the kind of gross income being reported. Add the amounts in each column on line 9.

Enter on line 10 in the proper columns any nontaxable income itemized in Schedule 2. Subtract the item in each column on line 10 from the total in the same column on line 9. Enter the difference between lines 9 and 10 in each column on line 11. This is your taxable gross income.

Read the instructions on exemptions and then enter the exemption to which you are entitled in the proper column on line 12. Subtract your exemption, line 12, from your taxable gross income, line 11, and enter the remainder on line 13.

On line 14 apply the rate shown at the head of each column to the amount of gross income shown on line 13 in the same column. Collect the figures in columns 1 to 3 on line 14 and enter the total on line 14 in column 4. This is your gross income tax liability for the period covered by your return.

If you are filing an annual return and have made payments during any quarter of the year, enter the quarterly payments on lines 15 to 17, and use line 18 if there have been any other payments carrying the total to column 4 on line 19. Subtract line 19 column 4, from line 14 column 4, and enter difference on line 20 column 4. This is the amount you owe on your return.

EXEMPTIONS. All taxpayers except retail merchants are limited to an exemption of $1000 for each tax year or $250 for each quarter. Retail merchants may take an annual exemption of $3000. Individual taxpayers need not prorate their exemptions for fractional parts of a year. Retail merchants, estates, corporations, partnerships, and dry cleaners must prorate their exemptions for periods of less than a year covered by the return.

If paid after due date, insert on line 21 column 4, the amount of interest due. If the return is filed after the close of the tax-payment period, the proper penalty should be inserted on line 22 column 4. The totals of lines 20, 21, and 22 should be inserted on line 23 in column 4, and a remittance attached for the amount shown on line 23, column 4.

Taxpayers wishing additional information on the preparation of fiduciary returns should request Form 1-F from the Gross Income Tax Division. For general information concerning Gross Income Tax, request Form 5-55.

Re: Fred E. Forsgren Estate

Dear Mrs. Forsgren:

The Court approved your final report on Monday of this week and ordered distribution of the assets remaining on hand to you in payment of the amounts advanced by you on behalf of the estate.

We are already to transfer the shares of stock into your name but are unable to do so until we have the certificates for the shares of stock properly assigned by you and guaranteed by a bank.

Efforts to reach you by phone have been unsuccessful and we are therefore writing this letter to request that you get in touch with us for the purpose of bringing the certificates to our office to be assigned and signature guaranteed so that we can forward them to the transfer agents for the companies for the transfer of the shares and issuance of new certificates in your individual name.

Please attend to this at your very early convenience and oblige.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TAXPAYERS

Returns are required to be filed for any quarterly period in which the taxpayer's liability exceeds $25.00. Payments for any quarter shall include the tax for any previous quarter for which a return has not been filed. The quarterly periods end on March 31, June 30, and September 30, respectively. The final date of payment for each quarter is the last day of the month following the end of the quarter. No quarterly return is to be filed for the last quarter of the year, since EVERY TAXPAYER IS REQUIRED TO FILE AN ANNUAL RETURN COVERING HIS INCOME FOR THE ENTIRE YEAR. TAKING CREDIT FOR PAYMENTS MADE IN ANY QUARTER DURING THE YEAR.

In preparing this return, insert the amount of your gross income, taxable and nontaxable in the proper spaces and in the columns applicable to the kind of gross income being reported. Deduct the nontaxable amounts from the TOTALS of all gross income received. Deduct the correct exemption applicable to the source of income from the TAXABLE GROSS INCOME to determine the AMOUNT SUBJECT TO GROSS INCOME TAX. Using applicable tax rate, carry GROSS INCOME TAX to Column 4.

Due to Legislative amendments of 1957 changing the rates of taxation, the division of gross income must be made for two periods, January 1st to June 30th and July 1st to December 31st, 1957.

Enter the entire gross income, taxable and nontaxable, received during the first six months period in lines 1 to 6 inclusive and in the columns applicable to the kinds of gross income being reported. Add the amounts in each column on line 7.

Enter on line 8 in the proper columns any nontaxable income, itemized in Schedule 2. Subtract the amounts on line 8 from the amounts on line 7. Enter the difference on line 9. This is your TAXABLE GROSS INCOME for the period January 1st to June 30th, 1957.

Read the instructions on exemptions and then enter the exemption to which you are entitled for the period January 1st to June 30th, 1957 in the proper column on line 10. Subtract your exemption, line 10, from your taxable gross income, line 9, and enter the remainder on line 11.

On line 12 apply the rate shown at the head of each column to the amount of gross income shown on line 11 in the same column. Collect the figures in columns 1 to 3 on line 12 and enter the total on line 12 in column 4. This is your GROSS INCOME TAX LIABILITY for the first six months of 1957.

Follow the same procedure for the last six months as used for the first six months period. Determine the gross income tax liability, deductions, exemptions and taxable gross income and enter on lines 13 to 21 inclusive. When the GROSS INCOME TAX has been established for each individual period, enter on line 23, column 4, the total of lines 12 and 22.

If you are filing an annual return and have made payments during the quarters of the year, or have had gross income tax withheld through payroll deductions, enter the payments on lines 24, 25, 26 and 27. Carry the total of all previous payments to column 4 on line 28. Subtract line 28 from line 23, column 4, and enter the difference on line 29, column 4. This is the amount you owe on your return. IF A REFUND IS DUE ENTER ON LINE 29 AS INDICATED.

If paid after due date, insert on line 30, column 4, the amount of interest due. If the return is filed after the close of the tax paying period, the proper penalty should be inserted on line 31, column 4. The totals of lines 29, 30 and 31 should be inserted on line 32, column 4, and a remittance attached for the amount shown on line 32, column 4.

EXEMPTIONS

All taxpayers except retail merchants are limited to an exemption of $1000.00 for each tax year or $250.00 for each quarter. Retail merchants may take an exemption for the first six months of 1957 of $1500.00 and an additional $500.00 for the last six months of 1957. Individual taxpayers need not prorate their exemptions for fractional parts of a year. Retail merchants, estates, corporations, partnerships and dry cleaners must prorate their exemptions for periods of less than a year covered in the return.

Dear Mrs. Forsgren:

Mr. Johnson has asked me to write and tell you that he has talked to the people here and they advise that so long as you are a resident of Indiana, it would be much better that the trustee be an Indiana corporation or bank. His suggestion is that you wait until you move to Chicago to consider a local trustee, but your will should be prepared by an Indiana attorney as long as you are a resident of that State.

If you have any questions, do not hesitate to call Mr. Johnson or myself when you are in Chicago.

Yours very truly,

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TAXPAYERS

Returns are required to be filed for any quarterly period in which the taxpayer's liability exceeds $25.00. Payments for any quarter shall include the tax for any previous quarter for which a return has not been filed. The quarterly periods end on March 31, June 30, and September 30, respectively. The final date of payment for each quarter is the last day of the month following the end of the quarter. No quarterly return is to be filed for the last quarter of the year, since EVERY TAXPAYER IS REQUIRED TO FILE AN ANNUAL RETURN COVERING HIS INCOME FOR THE ENTIRE YEAR. TAKING CREDIT FOR PAYMENTS MADE IN ANY QUARTER DURING THE YEAR.

In preparing this return, insert the amount of your gross income, taxable and nontaxable in the proper spaces and in the columns applicable to the kind of gross income being reported. Deduct the nontaxable amounts from the TOTALS of all gross income received. Deduct the correct exemption applicable to the source of income from the TAXABLE GROSS INCOME to determine the AMOUNT SUBJECT TO GROSS INCOME TAX. Using applicable tax rate, carry GROSS INCOME TAX to Column 4.

Due to Legislative amendments of 1957 changing the rates of taxation, the division of gross income must be made for two periods, January 1st to June 30th and July 1st to December 31st, 1957.

Enter the entire gross income, taxable and nontaxable, received during the first six months period in lines 1 to 6 inclusive and in the columns applicable to the kinds of gross income being reported. Add the amounts in each column on line 7.

Enter on line 8 in the proper columns any nontaxable income, itemized in Schedule 2. Subtract the amounts on line 8 from the amounts on line 7. Enter the difference on line 9. This is your TAXABLE GROSS INCOME for the period January 1st to June 30th, 1957.

Read the instructions on exemptions and then enter the exemption to which you are entitled for the period January 1st to June 30th, 1957 in the proper column on line 10. Subtract your exemption, line 10, from your taxable gross income, line 9, and enter the remainder on line 11.

On line 12 apply the rate shown at the head of each column to the amount of gross income shown on line 11 in the same column. Collect the figures in columns 1 to 3 on line 12 and enter the total on line 12 in column 4. This is your GROSS INCOME TAX LIABILITY for the first six months of 1957.

Follow the same procedure for the last six months as used for the first six months period. Determine the gross income tax liability, deductions, exemptions and taxable gross income and enter on lines 13 to 21 inclusive. When the GROSS INCOME TAX has been established for each individual period, enter on line 23, column 4, the total of lines 12 and 22.

If you are filing an annual return and have made payments during the quarters of the year, or have had gross income tax withheld through payroll deductions, enter the payments on lines 24, 25, 26 and 27. Carry the total of all previous payments to column 4 on line 28. Subtract line 28 from line 23, column 4, and enter the difference on line 29, column 4. This is the amount you owe on your return. IF A REFUND IS DUE ENTER ON LINE 29 AS INDICATED.

If paid after due date, insert on line 30, column 4, the amount of interest due. If the return is filed after the close of the tax paying period, the proper penalty should be inserted on line 31, column 4. The totals of lines 29, 30 and 31 should be inserted on line 32, column 4, and a remittance attached for the amount shown on line 32, column 4.

EXEMPTIONS

All taxpayers except retail merchants are limited to an exemption of $1000.00 for each tax year or $250.00 for each quarter. Retail merchants may take an exemption for the first six months of 1957 of $1500.00 and an additional $500.00 for the last six months of 1957. Individual taxpayers need not prorate their exemptions for fractional parts of a year. Retail merchants, estates, corporations, partnerships and dry cleaners must prorate their exemptions for periods of less than a year covered in the return.

Re: Fred E. Forsgren Estate

Dear Mrs. Forsgren:

This is to advise that I am about to leave for a short vacation. I'll be back about the second week in September. So far as I know there is nothing that will require attention in the meantime, and when I return I will be glad to go over the matters of the estate with you again, as I think we will be able then to plan for the final closing of the estate and the transfer of the assets.

The court has entered an order determining the estate free from the payment of any inheritance tax, so that, that matter is disposed of. I have not yet heard from the Director of Internal Revenue as to whether they wish to make any checkup of our return for Federal Estate Tax purposes, but I hope to hear from them in the near future.

I trust that you and your daughter enjoyed a very fine vacation on your trip to the west coast, and that you are now enjoying this warm summer weather at your home.

Very sincerely,

PARRY AND BARNS

Season's
Greetings

12-5-96

Holiday Greetings.

Hope you and your family are fine as our Christmas Season approaches. We have had quite an eventful year. Our Edi purchased a home for herself just a mile from our Chippewa House. We sold our Cleveland home in Sept. and are now permanently living at our Chippewa place. I am very happy over this move as it is something I've been wanting to do for many years. It was getting a bit much taking care of two places. And is bad enough.

Best Wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Also give my best to your Mom.

Love, Edi

Best Wishes for a delightful
Holiday Season and a new year
bright with happy moments

"Happy Holidays"

Dear Carol Springer.

Thank you for your letter of 9/3-´92-
Here is what I have found of informations, concerning C.F.Tietgen.
Build by Harland & Wolff in Belfast in 1897.

C.F.Tietgen was first bought by the Holland-America Line, where it was called "Rotterdam".
In 1906 the ship was bought by the Scandinavian-American Line, and called C.F.Tietgen.
It´s first departure from Copenhagen was april.26.-1906.
In 1913 the C.F.Tietgen was sold to the Russian- East Asiatic Co.
Enclosed is a picture of some of the ship´s, from that time.
I hope you can use these informations.
